

Evening Public Ledger

Philadelphia, Thursday, May 2, 1918

A PICTORIAL PRESENTATION OF PROMINENT AND PICTURESQUE SCENES AND INCIDENTS IN THE NEWS

ONE OF THE LARGEST SUBMARINES USED BY THE GERMANS held up the Spanish steamship Infanta Isabel off Cadiz and searched her, while the crew of the U-boat stood on their deck during the entire incident.

Underwood & Underwood.

THE HAVOC WROUGHT BY THE LONG-RANGE GERMAN GUN which is shelling Paris from eighty miles away is illustrated in this blasted interior of a nursery.

Underwood & Underwood.

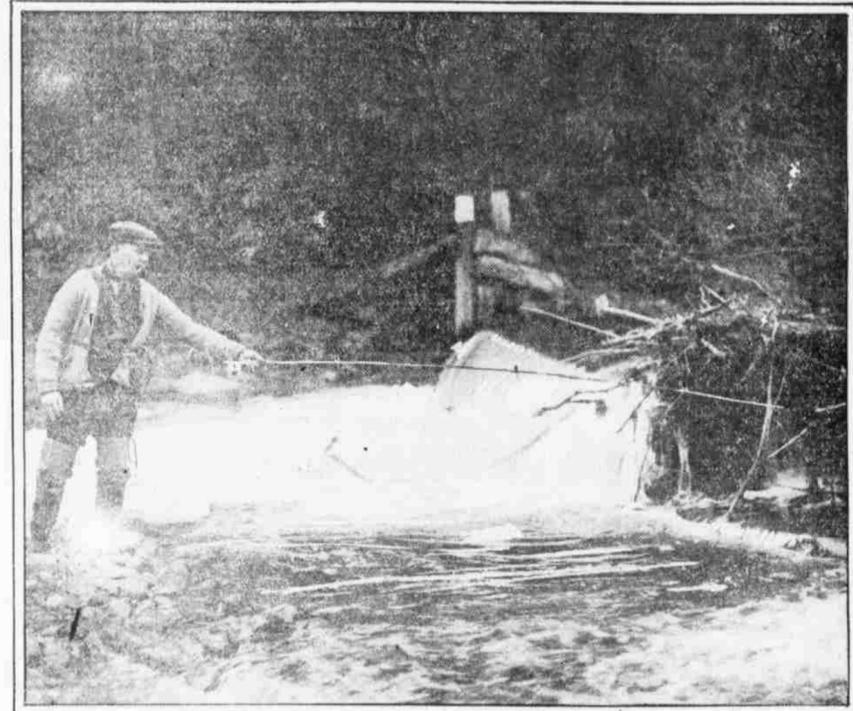

THE SMALL BOY DETERMINED TO SEE THE CIRCUS, but, minus the price of admission, is quite equal to the emergency.

THE FIRST WOMAN in the United States to receive a Federal commission is Mrs. Francis C. Axtell, chairman of the United States Employees' Compensation Commission.

Harris & Ewing.

CASTING INTO THE EDDY is fraught with fascinating possibilities when the trout are leaping in mountain streams in the Poconos.

Lewis H. Snow.

THESE CANADIAN RED CROSS NURSES—Isabel Gordon McElroy (left) and Elizabeth Letalle—are now in the United States to

THE OLDEST MAN IN THE UNITED STATES NAVY, Adolph L. Lowe, is seen with his grandson Gaston, a real "chip of the old block."

Committee on Public Information.

THESE FRENCH "BLUE DEVILS" are now in the United States to aid the third Liberty Loan, and they form far more than a merely decorative guard of honor for Miss Columbia, smiling in their midst.

Western Newspaper Union.